IFLA Statement on Indigenous Traditional Knowledge

IFLA acknowledges the intrinsic value and importance of indigenous traditional knowledge and local community knowledge, and the need to consider it holistically in spite of contested conceptual definitions and uses.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Protocols for Libraries, Archives and Information Services

The protocols address the recognition of the moral rights of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as the owners of their knowledge.

United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples

Article 31-1. Indigenous peoples have the right to maintain, control, protect and develop their cultural heritage, traditional knowledge and traditional cultural expressions, as well as the manifestations [thereof]... They also have the right to maintain, control, protect and develop their intellectual property over such cultural heritage, traditional knowledge, and traditional cultural expressions.
