Finding out your Strengths and Weaknesses

ACTIVATE CALL
I feel like we made some real progress today! The activity was challenging at first, for both of us. But we stuck with it and I feel like we really made a personal connection.

What we’ve learned so far

Plan for scale from the start. Figure out your costs for the pilot and beyond.

Involve the people who will actually use the technology in the decisions you make.

Tech development ALWAYS takes longer than you think it will.
