Learning Express Library is designed to help people succeed on the tests they must pass to gain citizenship, improve their testing skills or to further their education or career. Over 300 online academic and licensing practice tests including SAT, ACT, GRE, LSAT, Advanced Placement, civil service, military, real estate, law enforcement, citizenship, TOEFL, ESL and basic skills for elementary, middle and high school skills improvement and much more. Test preparation materials span ages from elementary through adult. This testing resource also provides instant scoring and customized feedback.

Search 1:

A high school student is looking for AP Calculus practice exams. Direct the student for assistance. Write down your steps:

Search 2:

A patron is studying for the naturalization test to become a U.S. citizen. He/she would like to find a sample test and more information regarding necessary steps to becoming a citizen. Write down your steps:

Staff Name: ____________________________________________
Date: ________________________________________________
Learning Philosophy Statement: We learn together and we share what we learn.
Search 3:
Spanish-speaking patron needs to apply for a Green Card. Can you help them find instructions on how to do this? Write down your steps:

What did you learn about this resource? When might you suggest this resource to a customer?

Search 4:
Make it meaningful to you! Complete a search for a question relevant to you personally or a question you’ve received in real life. Write down the question and your steps:

What did you learn about this resource? When might you suggest this resource to a customer?