Learning is active and ongoing.
• We are more knowledgeable together than apart.
• We learn together and we share what we learn.
• As a team we support each other’s learning.
• We are unique individuals who learn in different ways and at different paces.
• We believe in the power of knowledge and learning.

*adapted from Richland Library “Be a Smartie Learn Freely” staff development session

My learning goals for the year are:

____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________