STOLEN EDUCATION documents the untold story of eight Mexican-American school children who challenged discrimination in Texas schools in 1956 and changed the face of education. Dr. Enrique Alemán shares how an all-white school board, administration and faculty placed these students in three years of first grade based only on the color of their skin.
Four Agreements for today:

- Stay engaged
- Experience discomfort
- Speak your truth
- Expect/Accept non-closure

Reflective Questions for viewers:

- How does history impact a system?
- How does widening your aperture change your perspective?
- What steps can you take to become a more culturally responsive practitioner?

Questions for Dr. Enrique Alemán:

1. How can we take strategic action to disrupt the systemic racism still present in our schools and communities?

2. Knowing that 80% of the nation’s teachers are white and that by 2020 over half the children in our classrooms will be kids of color - what can all educators do right now?

3. What kind of guidance can you offer us as educators as we go forward?
