Student-Driven Differentiation Roadmap

1. Define learning intentions and success criteria with your grade-level and/or department colleagues.
2. Hook the students to promote authentic engagement.
3. Assess students formatively and analyze results.
4. Group students and choose instructional strategies.
5. Set a goal with students.
6. Differentiate the content, process, product and/or learning environment.
7. Monitor progress toward goal collaboratively.
8. Assess again to determine effectiveness.

Student Voice

- Students aren't showing growth, go back to step #6.
- Students show growth!