Communities with PEG HD Channels (updated 8-16-16)
(partial list)

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (Comcast)
Waco, Texas (Grande Communications)
Austin, Texas (Google)

Minnesota (Comcast) These cities have option for at least one HD channel in the future (see franchises/contracts for specifics):
- Minneapolis
- St. Paul
- North Suburban Communications Commission (9 cities)
- North Metro Communications Commission (7 cities)
- Coon Rapids
- Columbia Heights
- South Washington County Telecommunications Commission (5 cities)
- Ramsey Washington Counties Suburban Communications Commission (11 cities)

Minnesota (CenturyLink)
- North Suburban Communications Commission (9 cities)
- North Suburban Communications Commission (9 cities)
- North Metro Communications Commission (7 cities)
- Coon Rapids
- South Washington County Telecommunications Commission (5 cities)
- St Louis Park

St. Cloud, Minnesota (by 2016) (Charter)

Rutland, White River Junction, Bellows Falls and Woodstock, Vermont (Vermont Telephone Company)

Barre, Vermont and other 10 communities that are part of Central Vermont Community TV (Charter)

Montgomery County, Maryland (Comcast)

Portland, Oregon (Comcast)
Gresham, Oregon (Comcast)
Seattle, Washington (Comcast, CenturyLink)
Vancouver, Washington (Comcast)
Tacoma, Washington (Comcast)
Renton, Washington (Comcast)
Manhattan, New York (Verizon, Charter, RCN)
Brooklyn, New York (Verizon, Charter, Altice)
Queens, New York (Charter, Verizon)
Bronx, New York (Verizon, Altice)
Chicago, Illinois (RCN)
Fairfax County, Virginia (Cox)
Brookline, Massachusetts (RCN)
Burlington, Massachusetts (RCN)
Framingham, Massachusetts (RCN)
Lexington, Massachusetts (RCN)
Longmeadow, Massachusetts (Comcast)
Natwick, Massachusetts (RCN)
Needham, Massachusetts (RCN)
Newton, Massachusetts (RCN)
Stoneham, Massachusetts (RCN)
Waltham, Massachusetts (RCN)
Weston, Massachusetts (RCN)
Shrewsbury, Massachusetts Three HD channels (P, E, and G), simulcast in SD (Shrewsbury Electric and Cable Operations -- SELCO)