Positive Observation Culture - Where are we now?

1. How many times during this school year have you been observed - total? By a supervisor? By a peer?

2. How many times during this school year have you observed a peer teaching?

3. When I am being observed, I feel:

4. When I am observing others, I most often think about:

5. We talk about observations at our team meetings regularly

6. I am paid/my organization or school pays teachers for their time observing and providing feedback to others

7. I have seen my organization/school’s preferred observation note taking form

8. There is a clear process by which I am observed and that outlines the expectations of me observing others

9. Observations in my school/organization only occur as part of evaluations

10. There is time built into this process at my school/organization for conversation and feedback