[Name] Recognized as a Finalist in Emerging Leaders in Nutrition Science Competition

[City, State] – March 21, 2017 – [Name] has been named a finalist in the American Society for Nutrition’s (ASN) Emerging Leaders in Nutrition Science Competition, an event that recognizes the highest scoring research presented by students and young investigators at ASN’s Scientific Sessions and Annual Meeting at Experimental Biology 2017.

More than 1,000 abstracts were submitted by students and postdoctoral fellows and the Emerging Leaders in Nutrition Science Competition aims to recognize the top 20% highest scoring abstracts as finalists. Abstracts were rated by more than 400 nutrition scientists. [Mr./Ms./Dr.] [Last Name’s] abstract is titled [Abstract Title].

All finalists will compete in a poster competition to be held Saturday, April 22 from 5:00 – 7:00 pm in the Hall F Swing Space of the McCormick Place Convention Center. Grand prize winners in more than 16 research areas will be identified and receive travel awards.

The Emerging Leaders in Nutrition Science Competition is being organized by ASN’s Research Interest Sections, Global Nutrition Council and Medical Nutrition Council and sponsored by The Coca-Cola Company.
