So, How Do I Nominate a Colleague?

Go to www.ons.org/awards/onsawards - or

Go to the ONS home page (www.ons.org), select ‘Practice Resources’ tab at the top of the home page, select ‘Scholarships & Awards’ and then select ‘ONS Awards & Recognitions’ link on the left
Who’s Eligible to Nominate, and Who’s Eligible to Receive an ONS Award?

For the majority of the ONS awards, you must be an ONS member to nominate a colleague (see individual awards for eligibility criteria).

For the majority of the ONS awards, you must be an ONS member to receive an ONS award (exceptions: Honorary Member and International Award for Contributions to Cancer Care Awards).
Okay, I’m Ready! How Do I Nominate a Colleague for an ONS Award?

* Go to the ONS Awards page www.ons.org/awards/onsawards
* Select the link to the award(s) of your choice
* Carefully read the award’s eligibility criteria
* Read/Print-out the ‘How To’ nomination instructions at bottom of page for the online access to the Closerware Grant-Maker nomination site
* Click-on Closerware Grant-Maker link to register
* Click-on ‘Online Nomination’ link at the bottom of award page to access that award’s application
What Else Should I Know Before I Get Started?

* September 30th 5:00pm (Eastern) deadline!
* Most award nominations require 2 or 3 letters of support (or recommendation), resume or curriculum vitae, and sometimes a nominator/nominee statement
* Most awards require the nominator and nominee to be an ONS member
* All Excellence Awards require the nominee to have RN status with at least 2 years of oncology nursing experience
* Some awards have different eligibility criteria, so please review each award carefully
