Join us for a five-part session describing how you can improve your patient education efforts.

- Krista Henderson, RN, BSN, CBCN®, will present “Breast Cancer Chemotherapy Education: Taking It from the Classroom to the Computer.”
- Juliana Amankwah, RN, BSN, will present “Constipation and Opioids: Creation and Adoption of Evidence-Based Patient Education Tools.”
- Erica Fischer-Cartlidge, MSN, RN, CNS, CBCN®, AOCNS®, will present “A Comparison of Strategies for Injection Teaching in Patients and Their Caregivers.”
- Guadalupe Palos, DrPH, LMSW, RN, will present “Addressing the Educational Needs of Cancer Survivors to Maintain Their Health and Well-Being.”
- Eugene Terkoski, RN, will present “Development of a Preoperative Education Tool for the Head and Neck Patient Undergoing Microvascular Reconstructive Surgery.”

Target Audience: All Levels
Level of Content: Intermediate

Coordinator/Speaker:
Krista Henderson, BSN, RN, CBCN®
Outpatient Clinical Nurse
University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center
Houston, TX
Full Disclosure:
Nothing to Disclose

Speaker:
Juliana Amankwah, RN, BSN
Registered Nurse
Moffitt Cancer Center
Tampa, FL
Full Disclosure:
Nothing to Disclose

Objectives:
At the end of this session, participants will be able to:
1. Describe three approaches to improving access to patient educational materials.
2. Discuss successes and barriers to implementing patient education delivery methods in the oncology setting.