Join us in a five-part session identifying management challenges and strategies to meet the needs of patients and caregivers.

- Terri Jabaley, PhD, RN, will present “Cancer Risk Management Decision Making for BRCA+ Women (Previvors).”
- Fang-yu Chou, PhD, RN, will present “Develop Cancer Self-Management Interventions for Patients With Limited-English-Proficiency.”
- Verna Hendricks-Ferguson, PhD, RN, CHPPN®, will present “Evaluation of an Intervention Fidelity-Monitoring Plan for a Palliative and End-of-Life Communication Intervention Delivered to Parents of Children With a Brain Tumor.”
- Janice Withycombe, PhD, RN, MN, CCRP®, will present “Patient/Family Educational Practices in Pediatric Oncology: A Report From the Children’s Oncology Group (COG).”
- Kimberly Alexander, RN, PhD, will present “Social Well-Being and Cytokine Gene Variation in Patients With Cancer and Family Caregivers.”

Target Audience: Advanced Practice Nurses

Level of Content: Advanced

Speaker:
Terri Jabaley, PhD, RN
Assistant Professor
Emmanuel College
Boston, MA

Full Disclosure:
Nothing to Disclose

Speaker:
Fang-yu Chou, PhD, RN
Associate Professor
San Francisco State University
San Francisco, CA

Full Disclosure:
Nothing to Disclose

Speaker:
Verna Hendricks-Ferguson, PhD, RN, CHPPN®
Associate Professor
Saint Louis University
Saint Louis, MO

Full Disclosure:
Nothing to Disclose

Speaker:
Janice Withycombe, PhD, RN, MN, CCRP®
Research Nurse
Palmetto Health
Columbia, SC

Full Disclosure:
Nothing to Disclose

Speaker:
Kimberly Alexander, RN, PhD
School of Nursing, Queensland University of Technology
Kelvin Grove, Queensland, Australia

Full Disclosure:
Nothing to Disclose

Objectives:
At the end of this session, participants will be able to:
1. Identify management challenges and strategies for patients and caregivers.
2. Describe current practice structures and tools for patient needs.