Online Lessons -
Utilizing the Blended Lesson Model to Increase Graduation Rates:
A study of online lesson feasibility

Pilot Survey Questions
1. Was the lesson easy to follow and understand? Very Hard, Hard, Average, Easy, Very Easy
2. What part was hard to understand and why?
3. How useful is the lesson for you and your family? Very Uns suited, Uns suited, Average, Useful, Very Useful
4. What information was most helpful?
5. Please rate the length of the lesson. Very Long, Long, Just Right, Short, Very Short
6. Please rate the amount of information.
   Far Too Much, Moderately Too Much, Just Right, Moderately Too Little, Far Too Little
7. Was the online lesson engaging and able to hold your attention? Yes, No
8. Would you prefer to watch this lesson online or take this class in-person? Why?
9. Based on this experience, would you watch another online lesson? Yes, No
10. Please explain why you would or would not watch another online lesson.
11. What is missing?
12. What could be left out?
13. After participating in this lesson, how much more confident do you feel in your ability to plan meals and save money at the grocery store? Very Confident, Confident, Average, Uncertain, Not At All Confident
14. What skill(s) from the lesson do you plan to use at home?
15. Please make two suggestions to improve understanding of online content.
16. If there are any other comments you wish to share to help us improve this experience for others, please do so below.
A study of online lesson feasibility: Utilizing the Blended Lesson Model to Increase Graduation Rates.