Word Study & Spelling with LETRS

Tiffany Dagger & Julie Lee
Whether you are using Fundations or Words Their Way, you will be covering the concepts introduced in LETRS.
6 Syllable Types

C - Closed syllable has a short vowel
L - final consonant in syllable ends with L and silent E.
O - open syllable has a long vowel
V - vowel teams in a syllable
E - vowel-consonant with silent e
R - r-controlled
Candy Anchor Chart to Solidify Concepts
Example of Spelling Word Study

Spelling Work/Study for _ _ _ _ _ _ _.

1. Individualized spelling on Spelling City.
   M T W TH F
2. Teacher Group: Work on phonemes and words that fit the spelling concept/pattern.
   M T W TH F
3. Sound Boxes: Sound out your words and write them in the sound boxes.
   M T W TH F
4. Use your spelling words to write complete sentences.
   M T W TH F
5. Spelling Test
   M T W TH F
Rotations for WTW

1. Frees you up so you can work with specific spelling patterns in small groups.
2. Everyone has an assignment to work on that is differentiated to their needs.
3. Spellings test are given different days.
Importance of Tapping Syllables

Fist and closed hand.
Number of syllables counted with fingers.
Haiku Poems in Fifth Grade.
Sound Walls Vs. Word Walls

Where would you put these words?

Where would your students look for them?

of  one  drive
Thanks!

Any questions?

tiffany.daggercummin@gcisd.net
julie.lee@gcisd.net