Get your Tweet on: Social Media as an Effective GIS Management Tool
Robert Kirkman, GISP, Enterprise Services Manager, Oregon Metro, Portland, OR

ABSTRACT TEXT: Why aren’t you on social media as a GIS Professional? Gone are the days of social media being personal diversion. As a now-mature technology, social media are legitimate tools for effective business management. This session is going to provide guidance on:

• Professional development
• Training
• Best practices in management
• Best practices in IT
• Research
• “Official” URISA channels

Bring your tablet and smartphone. Two-screening will be encouraged to build your network and management practices.
