Kumari hospital destroyed
September 29, 2015 via Web

We have been in touch with our friend Jagat Lama about the Kumari region. The report is that 100% of homes are damaged, and they need food. The road...

Why we do what we do

People often lack a voice, and organizations can’t hear them.

People need a way to share their voice, to ask for and get support, and to bring transparency to their issues.

Organizations often lack context of what is happening on the ground. They need a tool to help collect, manage, visualize, and respond to data.
