Resources & Readings
For If We Don't, Who Will? How Managers Can Support Employees Who Work in EDI

https://sched.co/QXdQ

Session description: There is little training for library managers, and even fewer training opportunities on the best ways to support staff engaged in equity, diversity, and inclusion work. This roundtable, facilitated by supervisors and supervisees from 5 different libraries, will give practical guidance and strategies on how managers can more effectively advocate for and alleviate structural barriers so their staff are meaningfully supported in these efforts.

Below are selected resources that you may find helpful for increasing awareness and knowledge of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion issues.

Books

[Image of books]

Resources & Readings
For If We Don't, Who Will? How Managers Can Support Employees Who Work in EDI

https://sched.co/QXdO

Journal Articles

https://doi.org/10.1016/j.acalib.2014.10.008

https://www.calfac.org/magazine-article/cultural-taxation-faculty-color-academy

Resources & Readings
For If We Don’t, Who Will? How Managers Can Support Employees Who Work in EDI

https://sched.co/QXdO

Other Resources

Examples of racial microaggressions
https://sph.umn.edu/site/docs/hewg/microaggressions.pdf

Microaggressions in Librarianship
https://lismicroaggressions.tumblr.com

Guidelines for Respectful Discussion

Ground Rules + Tools Facilitating Productive Discussions - University Corporation for Atmospheric Research

Gender-Inclusive Library Workgroup Report from VCU Libraries
The Gender-Inclusive Workgroup explored how VCU Libraries can better serve trans and gender-nonconforming users and staff. The group’s recommendations cover library spaces, staff, systems, services, and culture. https://doi.org/10.21974/338x-ps11