One World. One Net. One Vision.

KONRAD ADENAUER STIFTUNG
Who we are?
The Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung is a German political foundation. At home as well as abroad, our civic education programs aim at promoting freedom and liberty, peace, and justice.

We focus on consolidating democracy, the unification of Europe and the strengthening of transatlantic relations, as well as on development cooperation.
In Germany, 16 regional offices offer a wide variety of civic education conferences and events.

Our offices abroad are in charge of over 200 projects in more than 120 countries.

The foundation’s headquarter is situated in Berlin.
As a think-tank and consulting agency, our scientific fundamental concepts and current analyses are meant to offer a basis for possible political action.

We provide moral and material support to intellectually gifted young people.

The Archive for Christian Democratic Politics researches and studies the history of Christian Democracy in Germany and Europe.
IGF. What for?
The practices of censoring, shutting down the Internet or individual services and the complete surveillance of users to prevent free access to and open exchange of information by some countries are contrary to the idea of an open Internet.

It also contradicts our idea of a free and democratic society.
It is commonplace that the rules for a global network are not negotiated in a national or even a European framework. Meaningful solutions are only possible on the international level.

That’s why the KONRAD ADENAUER STIFTUNG is engaged in this idea worldwide.
Since 2015 we support the international blogger network #AfricaBlogging. It is an online platform featuring a plurality of voices and views supporting democratic culture and debate in Sub-Saharan Africa.

In cooperation with the Atlantic Council we hosted the #DisinfoWeek in 2017. The project is focused on how to best combat the global challenge of disinformation.
Please stay tuned.
