Hattie’s MIND FRAMES for Teachers

As a COACH, how might you support these mind frames?
The 2017 Teaching Learning Coaching Conference will bring together instructional coaches, administrators, and teachers from across the globe to discuss the core truth — It’s All About the Kids.

We invite you to join us at Jim Knight’s world’s leading conference on instructional coaching, teaching, and learning, where more than 30 education experts and practitioners will lead keynote presentations and learning sessions focused on high-impact teaching strategies, proven instructional coaching practices, and systemic change strategies for creating high-performance schools — all in the interest in best serving our kids.

Learning Intentions

You will:
- Learn the power of collective efficacy by forming partnerships between administrators, coaches, teachers, and students
- Discover the critical connections between student learning and sustained professional learning
- Be inspired, challenged, and validated as you explore critical issues and innovations around teaching, learning, and coaching
- Explore breakthrough research from the Impact Research Lab on the most effective coaching and teaching practices
- Meet and build relationships with colleagues from around the world who are dedicated to increasing student achievement by improving instruction

Join us on September 26th for a day of pre-conference workshops. Maximize your TLC experience by attending one of the following:
- Instructional Coaching to Increase Student Engagement
- The Power of Connecting the Visible Learning Research and Instructional Coaching
- What’s New in Instructional Coaching
