Affective intensities

"affect is what moves us. It's a bunch of vibrant energies" (Hickey-Moody 2011:70)

Affect is more than emotion: It is "out power to affect the world around us and our power to be affected by it, along with the relationships between these two powers" (Maturana 1997:14). Drawing on dissolution through powers metaphor in Clouds (2007:4), Hickey-Moody elaborates (2011:13) as a "passage of a threshold. Again, from the point of view of the change in capacity...[the threshold] again from the point of view of the change in capacity. Hickey-Moody (2011:70) argues this moment as a change in capacity..."
