When We Read (in class, at home, etc.)

We...

1. Jot
   - I'm thinking: Michael is probably pretty lonely. But your sales. Michael has a few close friends, and his new friend says he's making a lot of friends now. He met one of his friends at first. He met one of his friends at first. He made a lot of friends now.
   - Jot's for Our Myth

2. Think of a Big Idea/Theory
   - My Thinking about...

3. Stretch Our thinking by writing an ENTRY using PROMPTS
   - "I think... because..."
   - "For example..."
   - "I'm noticing that..."
   - "Maybe..."
   - "On the other hand..."
   - "This shows..."
   - "I'm starting to think..."

- Writing Long about "Study":
  - "I'm thinking that Michael is tired of feeling lonely all the time because he's not used to the change. He's used to being alone. He likes to be with his friends now."
  - "I'm noticing that the author seems to want us to see this change when he writes."
  - "I'm starting to think..."