Each member of the class was assigned an internship at a non-profit in or around Asheville. The students will present posters documenting their experiences, highlighting the mission and work of the organization where they are working, and connecting that work to their student of sociology and anthropology. Their site supervisors will also be on hand to answer questions about their organization and describe the internship from their point of view.

Student Presenters

Jeremy James
Internship - Pisgah Legal Services

Auden Smith
Internship - Pisgah Legal Services

Brooklyn Baker
Internship at Mountain Child Advocacy Center

Abigail Collins
Internship at Pisgah Legal Services

Daniel Suber
Does Artistic Engagement Bring Academic Success and Positive Effects to Health and Well-Being?

Giacomo Riva
Internship at OpenDoors Asheville

Davi Cheshire
Internship at BeLoved Asheville

Tia Foster
Internship at Big Brother Big Sister Western NC

Abigail Thigpen
Poster Presentation for Soc/Anth Internship class at Beloved Asheville

Timothy Harris
Internship at Veterans Restoration Quarters

Breanna Mayeski
Internship at Pisgah Legal: Domestic Violence