APAPI Women Lead: https://www.imreadymovement.org
APAPI Women Lead and - Unlikely Movement aims to strengthen the progressive political and social platforms of Asian and Pacific Islander communities in the US through the leadership of self-identified AAPI women and girls. Our goal is to challenge and help end the intersections of violence against and within our communities.

Founded in 1972, AAJALC is the nation’s first legal and civil rights organization serving the low-income Asian Pacific American communities.

Asian Prisoner Support Committee (APSC): https://www.asianprisonersupport.com
Asian Prisoner Support Committee (APSC) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the leadership of self-identified AAPI prisoners and to raise awareness about the growing number of APIs being imprisoned, detained, and deported.

AYPAL: http://aypal.org
AYPAL’s mission is to empower Oakland’s low-income Asian & Pacific Islander immigrant and refugee families to be leaders for school reform and neighborhood change.

Banteay Srei: https://www.banteaysrei.org
Banteay Srei is a safe space for young Southeast Asian women, that promotes education, community and leadership development to foster cultural pride, and self-determination for women at-risk of or engaged in sexual exploitation.

Center for Asian American Media (CAAM): https://caammedia.org
CAAM is a nonprofit organization dedicated to presenting stories that convey the richness and diversity of Asian American experiences to the broadest audience possible. We do this by funding, producing, distributing and exhibiting works in film, television and digital media.

CAPE is proud to celebrate 27 years as the longest-running, largest, and most influential professional organizations for AAPIs in the entertainment industry.

East Bay Asian Youth Center (EBAYC): https://ebayc.org
EBAYC envision a future where all young people grow up to be lifelong builders of a just and compassionate multicultural society. Our diverse menu of services include youth violence prevention, expanded learning, and civic and community engagement.

The Devata Giving Circle: http://www.devatarele.org
The Devata Giving Circle is a vehicle to empower and engage Cambodian (Khmer) Americans in philanthropy. Along with our friends and allies, we work to promote collaborative giving in order to support organizations working to advance the human rights of Cambodian women and girls.

Diasporic Vietnamese Artists Network (DVAN): http://www.dvan.org
Our aim is to promote artists from the Vietnamese diaspora whose work in literature, visual art, film, and performance art enriches our communities and strengthens ties between Vietnamese across the globe.

Indochinese Housing Development Corporation: http://ihdec.org
IHDC is a low-income, non-profit housing organization. Through our youth program, Tenderloin Achievement Group (TAG), IHDC works to provide programs for Tenderloin neighborhood youth of all ages that support physical wellness and 21st century skills.

Kearny Street Workshop: https://www.kearnystreet.org
Founded in 1972, during the height of the Asian American cultural movement, Kearny Street Workshop (KSW) is the oldest Asian Pacific American multidisciplinary arts organization in the country.

Khmu Community of Orange County, California: http://www.khmucoc.org
Our goals are to embrace and preserve the Khmu cultural heritage and maintain our community cohesiveness, educate and promote our cultural customs to the young generation, encourage and assist our youth to strive for higher education.

Lao Angeles: https://www.laoangels.org
Lao Angeles is a Los Angeles based, progressive and inclusive movement featuring the Laotian diaspora. We seek to advocate and advance Lao identity and representation in mainstream media.

East Bay Asian Youth Center (EBAYC): http://www.tcfel.org

Lao In Mien Culture Association Inc. (LIMCA): http://www.lineacenter.org
LIMCA’s mission is to preserve the cultural heritage of the Lao Mien who came from the highland Lao tribal community, and to develop social and cultural programs to facilitate the Lao Mien integration into the economic and cultural life of the United States.

The vision of PVOTO is to be a collective voice for progressive Vietnamese Americans, to engage and empower Vietnamese Americans through civic engagement and leadership development, and to support policies and candidates that are aligned with our values.

Project MotiVATE: http://projectmotivate.org
We are the first Vietnamese-American mentorship program in Southern California. Our mission is to mentor Vietnamese-American Teens by developing their academic, cultural, and social skills to achieve educational goals and personal success.

Southeast Asian Community Center (SEACC): http://www.seaccusa.org
SEACC’s initial role, and one that continues today, was to provide a space for artists to express themselves as a newly resettled immigrant community. SEACC’s mission is to connect and enrich communities through Vietnamese art and culture.

Our objective is to capture the oral histories of first generation Vietnamese-Americans who have memories of life in Vietnam, the Vietnam War, and the displacement and resettlement of refugees from Vietnam.

Vietnamese Youth Development Center: http://www.vydc.org
Our mission is to empower under-served Asian Pacific Islander and urban youth with the knowledge and confidence to define their future and reach their full potential by developing leadership skills, supporting academics, providing job opportunities, and strengthening relationships with family and community.
NATIONAL/ONLINE

AAPI Data: https://aaipidata.com
AAPI Data seeks to make policy research and demographic data on AAPIs more accessible.

Angry Asian Man: http://blog.angryasianman.com
This is a blog about Asian America.

April Magazine: https://www.aprilmag.com
We want to see an awesome lady out there. We want to find more role models in every field so that our daughters and ourselves have more stars to look up to. We want to cover the stories for z by the warm, witty, worldly Asian women.

Asian American: http://www.asianamericanusa.com
Asian American is a podcast about slices of distinctly Asian American culture and history. Asian American is also a term based on the idea that Asian Americans are: a rich and inherent part of the American cultural and historical tapestry.

Asian American Writers' Workshops (AAWW): https://www.awww.org
Established in 1991, AAWW is a national not-for-profit arts organization devoted to the creating, publishing, developing and disseminating of creative writing by Asian Americans.

Boat People SOS (BPSOS): https://www.bpsos.org
BPSOS has rescued over 11,000 Vietnamese on the high seas or trafficked to some 20 countries. BPSOS is committed to improving the quality of life for all Vietnamese Americans.

The Brown Orient: https://thebrownorient.weebly.com
We aim to uplift conversations that lie on the intersection of race and gender, championing equality for brown skinned Asian women and queer folks in response to the apparent under-representation in the global narrative.

Conference on Asian Pacific American Leadership (CAPAL): http://www.capal.org
We seek to empower Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander (AANHPI) youth by increasing access to public service opportunities and building a strong AANHPI public service pipeline.

The Equity Lab: https://www.theequitylab.org
The Equity Lab seeks to disrupt racial and ethnic inequity by engaging organizations in issues of race, equity, diversity, and inclusion (RDEI).

Healing Out Laot: https://www.facebook.com/healingoutlaot
Healing Out Laot is a podcast platform to raise awareness of Laot American stories through the lens of intergenerational healing and resilience.

Hyphen Magazine: https://hyphenmagazine.com
Hyphen is a news and culture magazine, media outlet and community partner, that illuminates Asian America through hard-hitting investigative features on the cultural and political trends shaping the fastest-growing ethnic population in the country.

If Me: https://www.if-me.org
If Me is a community for mental health experiences that encourages people to share their personal stories with trusted allies.

Journey to the West: https://ttw.podbean.com
Listen to actual Asian women give social commentary on topical news, Asian issues, feminism with a lot of the meandering and bs cut out. Hosted by Vi, J, Sen & Wen.

Lao Writer's Summit: https://www.laowriters.org
Our mission is to provide support for Lao American writers, both emerging and established.

Lao American National Alliance (LANA): https://lanawa.org
LANA's mission is to advance the social, and economic well-being of Lao Americans in the United States through civic participation and public policy advocacy.

Little Laos on the Prairie: https://littellaosontheprairie.org
Our mission is to collect, craft, curate, and highlight stories of the Lao American and diaspora experience. LLOTP is an online storytelling platform driven by a team of Laos Diaspora writers committed to sharing the journeys, cultures, and livelihoods of the Laos Diaspora experience.

maivmai: https://medium.com/maivmai maivmai is an online publication and press for established, emerging, and aspiring Lao writers. Our goal is to create a space for the voices from the Lao diaspora where they can congregate and share in one another's work.

Narrating the Chinese-Vietnamese Identity: http://chinesevietnamese.com
This is an oral history project that investigates the histories, cultural backgrounds, communities, and pre- and post-migration identities of the first and second generation of Chinese Vietnamese in America and shares their stories through interviews and photographs of the places they now call home.

Mekong NYC: http://mekongnye.org
Mekong NYC aims to improve the quality of life of the Southeast Asian community in the Bronx and throughout NYC by achieving equity through community organizing and healing, promoting arts, culture, and language, and creating a safety net by improving access to essential social services.

Pom Foundation: https://www.pomfoundation.org
Our mission is to preserve, foster, transmit, and educate about Lao arts, culture, and traditions. Pom Foundation holds cultural programs, art exhibitions, educational panels and workshops, and events open to the public that educate and transmit Lao culture.

Project Ava: https://projectava.org
Project Ava's mission is to provide a brave platform for those of underrepresented experiences to share their stories in sparking progressive dialogue.

Project Voice Pod: https://www.projectvoicepod.com
Project Voice was launched originally with a vision to provide a digital space specifically for Asian American women.

Project Yellow Dress: http://www.projectyellowdress.com
Project Yellow Dress (PYD) is a space dedicated to sharing and highlighting the histories, experiences, and voices of the Southeast Asian diaspora.

Rambutan Literary: https://www.rambutanliterary.com
Rambutan Literary is an online literary and arts journal dedicated to showcasing literature and art from mainland, maritime, and diasporic Southeast Asian and to cultivating Southeast Asian writing and artistic communities.

Reappropirate: http://reappropirate.co
Jenn is a proud Asian American feminist, scientist and nerd who currently blogs at Reappropirate.co, one of the web's oldest AAPI feminist and race activist blogs.

Rise: http://www.risenow.us
Rise is a national civil rights nonprofit. We help people pen their own civil rights into existence. In 2016, we drafted and passed the Sexual Assault Survivors’ Bill of Rights unanimously through Congress, a feat only 21 bills in modern U.S. history have done.

Slant'd: https://slantd.media
Slant’d aims to cultivate cultural empathy among people of diverse races, perspectives, and experiences. Together, we can celebrate the diversity that makes us all beautifully—and unequivocally—human.

The SEAD Project: http://theseadproject.org
The SEAD Project (Southeast Asian Diaspora Development) is a creative social organization on a mission to be an accessible community hub that provides streamlined cross-cultural workshops, exchanges and knowledge-sharing for Khmer, Hmong, Lao and Vietnamese diaspora communities

SEARADS.ORG: www.searads.org
This website was created by non-profit and community organizations to provide resources and up to date information to people facing deportation to Cambodia, Laos, and Vietnam.

Stories of Asian America: http://storiesofasianamerica.com
Stories of Asian America is an ongoing collection of personal experiences from Asian Americans and Asian Immigrants living in the United States.

Union of North American Vietnamese Student Associations (UNAVSA): http://unavsa.org
UNAVSA is dedicated to cultivating the next generation of leaders who will serve as stewards of the Vietnamese community.