UCLA TEACHING HISTORY CONFERENCE 2019 WORKSHOP:

Rethinking the Teaching of the Vietnam War

How can we say “Never Forget” and mean it?

“All wars are fought twice, once on the battlefield, the second time in memory.”

Through critical lenses of memory and history, this workshop will explore transformative approaches to teaching the Vietnam War. Participants will engage with new curriculum that centers a humanizing understanding of the War and honoring its memory.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA - LOS ANGELES
SATURDAY MAY 4, 2019 | 9:45AM - 11:15AM
PRESENTER: HANNAH NGUYEN, MAT-UESJ CANDIDATE