Individuation means becoming an ‘in-dividual’ and in so far as ‘individuality’ embraces our innermost, last and incomparable uniqueness, it also implies becoming one’s own self. We could therefore translate individuation as ‘coming to selfhood’ or ‘self realization.’ – Carl Jung
Uranus is the planet of electricity... The old has to be destroyed before something new can enter... it is never content to allow old institutions to continue without change. — Edgar Cayce

If one fails to respond to his own inner urges he will be left with having to face up to his own furies. If one responds to these urges, he is left having to face the furies of others. — Howard Sasportas

The planet Uranus is empirically associated with the principle of change, rebellion, freedom, liberation, reform and revolution... the act of cosmic rebellion against a universal structure to free humanity of bondage, the urge to transcend limitation... the element of excitement and risk. — Rick Tarnas

Once the soul awakens, the search begins and you can never go back. From then on, you are inflamed with a special longing that will never again let you linger in the lowlands of complacency and partial fulfilment. The eternal makes you urgent. You are loath to let compromise or the threat of danger hold you back from striving toward the summit of fulfilment
- John O'Donohue
