FAMILY SYSTEMS THEORY

An individual is best understood and therefore helped within the context of their relationships and interactions within the family.

- “It is now clear to me that the family is a microcosm of the world. To understand the world we can study the family” (Satir, 1988).
- “We get together on the basis of our similarities, we grow on the basis of our differences” (Satir, 1988).
SYNASTRY AS TRANSITS

The synastry between a parent and child is also the transits the parent was under at the time of their child’s birth.
The transits to the composite chart of the parents, at the time of their child’s birth, is the child’s natal chart.
