- Sometimes you start all over again.
- You will be confronted with the things, that didn’t work out in the past and why you and this person fell apart in the first place.

Purpose:
- Learn about your relationship patterns of the past overcome those patterns that didn’t serve you well in your past.
- Venus retrograde is a time, where you should be very aware of everything that goes on in your relationship life and learn from it.

Money:
- Don’t make financial decisions or close important financial deals under Venus retrograde,
- The involved parties may change their mind.
- Similar to Mercury retrograde.
- The difference: with Venus retrograde, the uncertainty is about the values and expectations of the people concerned. They have difficulties to decide.
- With Mercury, the uncertainty is caused by a lack of information.
