POSTERS

1. Student Hotspotting: An Interdisciplinary Effort in Engaging Super-Utilizers of Emergency Medical Services
   Sudarshan Bhat

   Sascha Cohen

3. MeSHing with Rounds: Question Topics Asked of a Clinical Librarian
   Kristen DeSanto

4. Analyzing the Variability of Abstract Format Requirements Set by Individual Medical Journals
   Tarek Eid

5. Promoting professional development through Assessment, Reflection, Coaching, and Health (ARCH)
   Weeks
   Kristen Fitzhenry
6. Student Confidence and LGBTQI Competence with Sexual History
   Taking After Peer Teaching Workshop
   Jennifer Franks

7. Using Students’ Performance on a Final Exam as a Resource to Improve a Clerkship Curriculum
   Brian Good

8. Problem Based Learning Performance Improved by Adoption of Multiple Mini Interview
   Nikhita Kathuria

9. Educational Experience of Host and Exchange Medical Students during A Clinical Clerkship Elective Rotation in Thailand
   Thana Khawcharoenporn

10. Checkpoints: Assessment for Learning in Action
    Marieke Kruidering

11. Medical Student Perspectives on the Need for Pre-Clinical Education
    in Critical Care Medicine
    Nicholas Montano
12. The Use of Experiential Learning Modules to teach Integrative Medical Approaches
   Rashmi Mullur

13. An Extended Exploratory Investigation of Study Methods and Exam Score Expectation and Satisfaction at a Single Institution
   Bao Sean Nguyen

14. A Cadaver Based Curriculum for Gynecological Surgery
   Erica Oberman

15. Using Simulation as an Educational Tool with Pre-Clinical Medical Students in a Biochemistry Course
   Marybelle Pe

16. Does expanded clerkship time translate to expanded interest in family medicine?
   Karly Pippitt

17. Get through the NL1: Key Success Factors from 6 Years’ Experience of the Endocrinology Block: Lessons Learned from the Faculty of Medicine, Thammasat University
   Panadda Rojpibulstit
18. Basic Science Faculty Rounds with Clinicians: Bridging the Divide
   Mark Servis

19. Students teaching students: a possible answer to the decline in technical skills training in medical school
   Raj Shah

20. Health Care for the Homeless: A Novel Integrated Curriculum Session for First-Year Medical Students
   Laurie Song

21. Early Medical Students in Novel Health Systems Improvement Curriculum
   Stephanie Soong

22. The Perceived Impact of Medical Student Research Requirements on Residency Interviews
   Louisa Stark

23. Becoming Outstanding Educators: What Do They Say Contributed to Success?
   Larissa Thomas
24. There’s no “I” in Nevada: How a Values-Driven Strategic Plan Transforms Medical Education
   Amy Smith

25. Introduction of Child & Adolescent Psychiatry into the 3rd Year Curriculum - Transition into residency and practice of medicine
   Benjamin Chan

26. Conceptual Learning through Hands-on Teaching: Providing a Foundation in Research Data Management
   Jennifer Dinalo

27. Dethroning the Krebs cycle from most-hated status: Inclusion of a metabolic map during teaching and assessment
   Janet Lindsley

28. Clerkship Weight Loss Program: Using Lean Principles to Redesign Your Curriculum and Increase Value
   Marlana Li

29. A structured approach to teach and assess critical reflection.
   Marieke Kruidering
30. Practice makes Permanent – Engaging students in active learning to help make things stick
   David Morton

31. How to establish defensible pass-fail lines in the health professions
   Stephen Schneid

32. How to Increase the Validity of Multiple-Choice Question (MCQ)-Based Exams in the Health Professions
   Stephen Schneid

33. Online After Action Report Evaluation: The Change to Paper-Less Evaluation for Extra Curriculum Activities managed by Thammasat University Medical Student Council
   Adiluck Plsutpunya

34. Engagement of accepted medical students as they transition into first year of medical school
   Benjamin Chan

35. A Software Tool to Assist with Development and Deployment of Virtual Patient Scenarios via Mobile Devices
   Bradley Tanner
36. Physically and Mentally Fit: Assessing Changes in Metabolic Rate During Pre-Clerkship Medical Training
   Frederick Sudbury

37. Emergency Medicine Residents Value the Shadow Shift/Evaluation Process by Education Specialists
   Benjamin Chan

38. Rural Students Exploring Health Professions: An Interprofessional Student Initiative
   Lisa Richardson

39. Psychiatric Residents as Experts in Role Play: A Novel Approach to Teaching Suicide and Violence Risk Assessment in the Undergraduate Medical Education Curriculum
   Mary Steinmann

40. Intermedical school physiology quiz: What is the benefit for medical students; from students’ perspective?
   Phubordee Bongkotvirawan

41. Reconnecting to a Comprehensive Careers in Medicine Program
   Ramon Aldecoa
42. Call to Action: The development of peer support groups for third year students
   Ranna Nash

43. Differences in Delivery of In-House MCAT Preparation Course for Post-Baccalaureate and BS-MD Student Populations
   Zachary Walker

44. One Minute Student Mental Health Access Initiative
   Sarah Williams

45. Exploring the Motivation Behind Physician Volunteerism
   Tarek Eid